

Youth Sports in the Caribbean

Maymester PRTM 391 Section 150 (Course Credit = 3 hours)

Where: Caribbean Island of Dominica

When: Saturday, May 13 – Sunday, May 21, 2006

Instructors: Dr. Dart Schmalz (schmalz@clemsun.edu)

Dr. Lynne Cory (cory2@clemsun.edu)

Course Description: A service-learning class involving the development and study of youth sport opportunities on the Caribbean Island of Dominica. The class will include youth sports coaches training, on-site needs assessment related to youth sports, and conducting a youth sports festival in collaboration with the National Alliance for Youth Sports. Other learning opportunities include gaining understanding and appreciation of recreation and leisure within another country and culture.

Costs: $2850* includes tuition, program fees, airfare, ground transportation, lodging, meals, insurance, program related field trips and excursions, pre-departure coursework and materials, as well as travel-related taxes and fees. Payments are due March 15 ($1000), March 31($1000) and April 15 ($850). *Prices subject to change depending on enrollment numbers and unanticipated airfare increases.

Application Deadline: Deadline extended until March 15, 2006. Program is limited to a maximum of 15 students.

Contact via phone or email: Dr. Schmalz (864-656-2184) or Dr. Cory (864-656-2198) in the Department of Parks, Recreation and Tourism Management.

