

KATHLEEN M. MEYER
4009 Arrowhead Trail
Seneca, South Carolina 29672
(864) 888-2204
KATHM@clemson.edu

SKILL
SUMMARY:

- Strong self-management skills
- Extensive counseling, teaching and public speaking background
- Works well independently and as part of a team

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

2000-Present

CLEMSON UNIVERSITY, Clemson, SC

- Senior Lecturer/Internship Coordinator-Department of Public Health Sciences
- Coordinate the Public Health Sciences Internship Program (Hlth. 420)
- Teach three sections “Health Appraisal Skills”, one Section ”Internship Preparation Seminar”
- Co-advisor of the Gamma Chi Chapter of Eta Sigma Gamma, National Health Honor Society

1999-2000

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH & ENVIRONMENTAL CONTROL, Appalachia I, Anderson, SC

Health Promotion Program Manager

- Planned, implemented, marketed and evaluated the district's community health promotion program
- Supervised two Health Educators, one Registered Dietician, and one Administrative Assistant
- Maintained and updated position descriptions; assessed and provided for staff orientation and training
- Prepared grants, coordinated copy for publication

1996-1999

JORDAN ELBRIDGE CENTRAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, Jordan, NY

District Health Education Coordinator/Health Educator

- Taught 7th and 8th grade health education classes
- Reorganized and expanded the role of the District Health Advisory Committee
- Developed and implemented the district-wide “safe homes” campaign, increasing membership by 50% within a one-year period
- Coordinated student wellness conferences

1987-1990

STATE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE AT CORTLAND, Cortland, NY

Adjunct Instructor- Department of Health Education

- Designed and taught the graduate level courses, “Health Education Methods for Elementary Teachers”, and “Drug Education for Teachers”

1985-1996

SKANEATELES CENTRAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, Skaneateles, NY

Health Educator

- Taught 7th and 8th grade health education classes and a high school peer leadership class.
- Chaired the middle school mentoring committee
- Member of the district-wide Health Education Advisory Committee, the district-wide AIDS Task Force and the Anorexia-Bulimia Education groups

1984-1985

AMERICAN RED CROSS EDUCATIONAL SERVICES DEPT., Syracuse, NY

Program Specialist: Business, Industry & Education

- Coordinated and marketed safety and health education services to Onondaga County industries, businesses and schools
- Assisted in the development and promotion of new services and courses offered at area worksites
- Hired and supervised eleven worksite safety instructors

1984-1985

NORTHERN OSWEGO COUNTY HEALTH SERVICES, INC., Pulaski, NY

Health Education/Marketing Coordinator

- Initiated nutrition, weight control, fitness, hypertension, and diabetes education programs
- Counseled patients upon referral from physicians in nutrition, weight control, hypertension, diabetes, and family planning. Average quarterly counseling load – 200
- Appointed Interim Co-administrator for a two-month period. Responsible for personnel, day-to-day flow, aspects of finance, opening a satellite clinic facility, and timely completion of federally required reports
- Prepared grants

1978-1983

PORT BYRON CENTRAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, Port Byron, NY

Health Educator

- Instructed 6th, 7th, and 8th grade health education classes
- Initiated the Port Byron Parent Advisory Council for Family Living/Sex Education
- Implemented “Adopt a Grandparent” program in cooperation with Auburn Nursing Home

EDUCATION:

State University College at Cortland, Cortland, NY

M.S. Health Education (1982)

B.S. Health Education (1977)

CERTIFICATIONS:

American Red Cross Instructor for Professional Rescuer CPR/AED , First Aid, and Bloodborne Pathogen Training.

KATHLEEN M. MEYER

AWARDS:

College of Health, Education and Human Development- Award for Excellence in Advising and Counseling-2005
Department of Public Health Sciences- “Professor of the Year “ award-2004
Clemson University- “Innovation Award” recipient-2003
American Association for Health Education- “Best Health Education Photo Presentation” recipient-2002
Clemson University- “Student Affairs Collaboration Award” recipient-2001

PRESENTATIONS:

W. Sherrill, G. Costello, K. Meyer, “Implementing Electronic Portfolios with Undergraduate Health Management Students”, oral presentation, AUPHA Annual Meeting, San Diego, CA, June 2004

COMMITTEES AND PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS:

South Carolina Healthy Schools- HIV Materials Review Panel
AAHPERD-American Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance
SCAAHE-South Carolina Association for the Advancement of Health Education
Department of Public Health Sciences - Scholarship and Awards Committee Chair
Clemson University - Digital Portfolio Committee
Clemson University - School Health Education Advocate (SHEA)